

Good things come in threes: Apiax recognised by key awarding bodies during spring 2020

Zurich, April 30, 2020 – RegTech startup Apiax has seen an excellent start to 2020. The young RegTech company was awarded three recognitions in the first quarter and is now looking to gain from the industry exposure.

Following a successful Series A funding round in October 2019, Apiax has seen continued industry recognition through three prestigious awards during spring 2020.

- Apiax has been awarded the 2020 Red Herring Top 100 Europe. The Red Herring Award was launched in 1996 and identifies promising new companies and entrepreneurs from the European region. Thousands of the most interesting and innovative companies such as Facebook, Google, Spotify, Twitter and YouTube have graced Red Herring's list.
- Apiax has been named one of the top european fintech startups to follow in 2020 by Sifted. The European news outlet is backed by the Financial Times and gives commentaries, insights and analysis on the European startup world. Apiax was chosen because of its ability to raise money, the quickness of its hiring and its formative contribution to the startup ecosystem. Fellow listed companies are – amongst others – Revolut, Klarna and N26.
- Apiax has been included on The Europas 2020 longlist which was published on Monday, May 6th 2020. The Europas recognises and celebrates the innovation emerging from the European startup scene. Previous winners include notable companies such as Soundcloud, Spotify and Transferwise.

These distinctions will help Apiax on their entrepreneurial journey and more importantly strengthen the awareness and necessity of RegTech.

Alex Vieux, publisher and CEO of Red Herring, said: "In 2020, selecting the top achievers was by no means a small feat. But, we believe Apiax embodies the vision, drive and innovation that define a successful entrepreneurial venture. Apiax should be proud of its accomplishment."

Apiax is in fact proud to be seen as an innovative and ambitious company by major players in the startup ecosystem.

Nicolas Blanchard, co-founder of Apiax, said: "To be recognised for our efforts in RegTech from prestigious outlets such as Red Herring or Sifted highlights all the hard work we put in daily."
